Dès l'âge de 17 ans, Tory Lanez se produit en concert et publie en 2009 une première mixtape, T.L2T.O., tout en développant son image sur internet. L'année suivante, trois nouvelles mixtapes interviennent : Just Landed, One Verse One Hearse, Playing for Keeps et Mr.1 Verse Killah.

L'horizon se débouche véritablement en 2011 à la faveur de la signature avec Time Is Money Entertainment, qui accouche de trois nouvelles mixtapes : Mr. Peterson, Chixtape et Swavey. Redevenu indépendant, Lanez publie en 2012 la mixtape SincerelyTory, Conflicts of My Soul : The 416 Story un an plus tard et Chixtape II en 2014. La même année sort la mixtape LostCause, entraînant une tournée du même nom. Un EP intitulé Cruel Intentions suit en 2015 et l'année suivante, c'est au tour d'un premier album, I Told You, de voir le jour.
